

Mark Strassburger

Mark Strassburger is a senior financial planner and a founding partner of The Capital Group. He has over 35 years of experience in investments and financial planning, advising both individuals and businesses.

Mark provides advice to individuals and their families on wealth accumulation, management of assets, lifetime distribution and wealth transfer strategies.

Mr. Strassburger began his career in pension administration for corporate retirement plans as an ERISA plan management expert. He later joined Lincoln Financial Group as Regional Manager, designing and implementing employer-sponsored retirement and group life and health welfare benefit programs. Mark currently advises numerous small to large size employer businesses.

Mr. Strassburger has been a speaker at national and regional professional conferences discussing retirement plan design and investment strategies. Mark is a past-president of the Madison Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors. He is a Registered Representative and Investment Advisor Representative with Lincoln Financial Advisors Corp., a Broker-Dealer and Registered Investment Advisor. He is licensed for life, health and holds NASD Series 6, 7 and 63 registrations.

Mr. Strassburger is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Madison.

