

Capital Analysts of Jacksonville, Florida, Inc. is Proud Community Host for Beaches Fine Arts Series

Jacksonville, Florida (Nov. 8, 2013) – Capital Analysts of Jacksonville, Florida, Inc. is proud to be a Community Host for Beaches Fine Arts Series' November 15th concert presentation of David Finckel & Wu Han, a brilliant cello and piano duo, at St. Paul's by-the-Sea Episcopal Church in Jacksonville Beach, Florida (www.beachesfinearts.org).

Since 1972, Beaches Fine Arts Series has offered people of North Florida the chance to enjoy world-class music for free. Artists who perform in the series also perform educational outreach workshops for thousands of students in the North Florida area. Following each concert, local community organizations host a reception in honor of the performers which includes exhibits featuring the work of visual artists from all over the region. This year marks BFAS's 41st season that continues to offer diverse annual performances including jazz, gospel, historical tribute, vocal and instrumental performances.

Capital Analysts of Jacksonville has a long history with BFAS and supports the organization both financially and time-wise. Shareholder Elaine Hall serves as a Trustee, former Treasurer and active volunteer with the organization and will be on hand to welcome attendees to the concert.

If you would like more information please contact Elaine Hall at 904-730-7433 and ehall@capanjax.com or visit <http://www.capanjax.com>.

###