Capital Analysts of Jacksonville's Elaine Hall Honored

Named Among Local "Ultimate Financial Officers"

Jacksonville, Fla. – June 21, 2016 – Capital Analysts of Jacksonville is pleased to announce that M. Elaine Hall, MBA, CFP®, ChFC®, a shareholder in the firm who serves as its Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, has been named among the recipients of the Jacksonville Business Journal's 8th Annual Ultimate Finance Awards.

The awards recognize financial professionals in Northeast Florida for outstanding performance in providing direction, recognizing opportunities, identifying and managing risk, diminishing debt and achieving profitable growth. The award ceremony will take place at a luncheon on Thursday, June 23, at the Omni Jacksonville Hotel.

"We are thrilled that Elaine Hall has been recognized by the local business community," said Bruce Ogier, President of Capital Analysts of Jacksonville. "She is a key member of our shareholder team and we deeply appreciate her contributions to the firm."

Elaine began her career in financial services in 1986 and joined Capital Analysts in 1988. She left the firm in 1990 for a brief period in 1990, but returned in 1994. An Adjunct Instruction at the University of North Florida, she teaches Personal Finance and Risk Management and Insurance. She also serves on the board of directors for Coastline Federal Credit Union and has been active with the Uptown Civitan Club and the Beaches Fine Arts Series.

Elaine holds a bachelor's degree from Eckerd College and a Master's in Business Administration from the University of North Florida, and has served in leadership roles for the Financial Planning Association of Northeast Florida
