

New Chairman Soars at Project SOS

Jacksonville, Florida (August 14, 2013) – Jacksonville financial consulting firm Capital Analysts of Jacksonville, Florida, Inc. is pleased to announce Benjamin Wuerffel's appointment as Chairman of the Board at Project SOS. Mr. Wuerffel, an associate at Capital Analysts of Jacksonville and community leader, accepted his new position the first of August. Mr. Wuerffel is the youngest Chairman in the organization's rich 20 year history. Project SOS's primary goal is to raise awareness and empower youth to make healthy life choices and decisions. Over the years, Mr. Wuerffel has played an essential role in Project SOS's growth and success, participating in a number of fundraisers as well as through his dedicated work as a member of the Project SOS Board.

In his new role, Mr. Wuerffel will guide the expansion of Project SOS, which is currently being offered in 22 public schools for students in middle and high school. Capital Analysts of Jacksonville extends their congratulations to Mr. Wuerffel on his exciting new promotion and opportunity to further help the Jacksonville community.

Project SOS is an organization from Jacksonville, FL that focuses on strengthening students through positive youth development programs.

If you would like more information please contact Benjamin Wuerffel at 904.730.7433 and bwuerffel@capanjax.com or visit <http://www.capanjax.com>.

###