

Capital Analysts of Jacksonville Supports 6th Annual Ride for Dreams Event

Jacksonville, Florida - October 21, 2014 – Jacksonville financial planning consulting firm Capital Analysts of Jacksonville, Florida, Inc. has partnered with Dreams Come True for the 6th Annual Adamec Harley-Davidson Ride For Dreams on Saturday, November 8th to raise funds in support of local children in our community with life-threatening illnesses.

Dreams Come True, founded in 1984, is celebrating 30 years of service and over 3,100 dreams to our children. Dreams Come True believes the dreams of children inspire the heart of the community. As the First Coast's only locally based and funded dream-granting organization, they work on behalf of children battling life-threatening illnesses because a simple moment of joy, hope, and encouragement can bring a ray of sunshine into a child's life when they need it most. They are committed to fulfilling the dream of every child who needs our help, ensuring that every dollar given delivers a dream to our community of children.

Capital Analysts of Jacksonville is proud to be the Presenting Sponsor for this event, with registration beginning at 8:30am and Kickstands up at 10:30am on Saturday November 8th at the Adamec Harley-Davidson location on 8909 Baymeadows Road, Jacksonville, Florida. Register for the ride at www.ridefordreams.com or come join us for a morning of fun as we cheer on the participants in the ride that is raising funds for the precious children in northeast Florida that have the big dreams. Dreams Come True, founded in 1984 by Thomas McGeehee, is an organization dedicated to using the power of a dream to bring hope and joy to EVERY First Coast child battling a life-threatening illness.
